II – STYLE GUIDE

- Submissions should be an original work and may address, inter alia, the following issues:
 - Topical issues;
 - Case law;
 - Legislation.
- How topical is the issue assessed :
 - Comments should concern current developments no older than 1 year from the article’s publication date.
- Submissions may be submitted in Portuguese, Spanish, French or English and shall be published in their original language.
- In exceptional cases, submissions that have already been published may be accepted. In such circumstances Authors are required to indicate where it was previously published. If accepted, the submission is published in its original language. If applicable, the Author will be responsible for ensuring the article’s translation into one of the four accepted languages.
- Manuscripts must be Word processed and meet the following requirements:
 - Between 1000 and 1500 words (as a general rule);
 - Avoid footnotes;
 - Save in the case of citations, excerpts in bold or underlined should be avoided. Authors may use italic to emphasise a particular argument or excerpt;
 - Citations should be in double quotation marks. (e.g. “...”). If the quoted author uses quotation marks in the text cited, the author should apply another kind of quotation marks to signal the beginning and the ending of the citation (e.g.: “... ‘...’ ...”). Truncation within citations should be between [...];
 - Except if included in previous original works, paragraphs should not be numbered. However, should it result in a clear benefit in conveying the subject-matter of the paper, Authors may use subparagraphs with bullet-points.
- Citation of Administrative authorities’ case practice, domestic or EU
 - EU: Decision (EC) [case nr.] - [case name], p. or §

- Citation of Jurisprudence (domestic or EU):
 - Domestic: [case nr.], [case name], p. or §
E.g. case nr. 1065/07.0TYLSB, PT Condutas, p. or § (...).
 - European Court of Justice:
 - Method of citing the case-law of the Court of Justice of the European Union on the basis of the ECLI (European Case-Law Identifier), available at https://curia.europa.eu/jcms/jcms/P_126035/en/.

- [case nr.], [case name], [ECLI], p. or §
E.g.: C-85/76, Hoffman-La Roche, EU:C:1979:36, p. or § (...).
- Authors must provide a short CV in Portuguese (if possible) and English, (which should not exceed 950 character, including spaces, for each of the languages) as well as mailing and email addresses.

III - ETHICS

- Authors commit to:
 - Publish only original contents that do not belong to someone else;
 - Disclose if the same content (or a different version of the same content) was published elsewhere by same author;
 - Disclose any involvement in the commented development (so that reader can understand that the point of view is not super partes).

Contributions should be sent to revista@concorrencia.pt, with copy to ricardo.horta@concorrencia.pt and miguelferro@fd.ulisboa.pt. The submission of contributions does not guarantee acceptance for publication in the C&R.
